

National Association of Show Trucks
23227 Freedom Ave, Suite 7
Charlotte Harbor, FL 33980

The National Association of Show Trucks found its largest show of the year and edge of the Mackinac Bridge in St. Ignace Michigan at the Richard Crane Memorial Truck Show. September 16,17 and 18th.

The weather was perfect for a third show in a row. The truck show shares the area with one of the country's largest antique tractor shows and a car show. With The Bronk Bros on stage all weekend there is no shortage of entertainment.

On Saturday night the light parade over the Mackinac Bridge traveling through both Mackinac City and St. Ignace with over 25,000 spectators.

Our Third Truck-Lite Trophy Series Qualifier of 2011 finds us with a fresh look in Duaine Conrad with Sargento Transportation.

The next show will find us at Cabala's on I 35 w in Ft. Worth, TX. At the Bobby Lindawood Memorial Truck Show.
